

Solidarity Tour | Seminar #5 | Programme
“European integration and enlargement”
Belgrade, Serbia, 6 - 8th November 2019

Wednesday 6 November

The participants arrive in Belgrade throughout the day.

Check-in at the hotel: Hotel Palace, Topličin venac 23
11 000, Belgrade Serbia

Tel: +381 11 2185585

17:30      Visit of the exhibition “The End of the Great War 1917–1918”
and “Princess Elizabeth – A Long Journey Home”
Historical Museum of Serbia, Trg Nikole Pašića 11, 11 000 Belgrade
Meeting point at the hotel at 17:00.

20:00      Dinner
Hotel Palace, Topličin venac 23

Thursday 7 November

Hotel Palace, Topličin venac 23
11 000, Belgrade Serbia

09:30      Arrival of the participants.

10:00 – 10:40      Introductory presentations
Official beginning of the partnership

- Irina Kivić, School coordinator for the implementation of EU funded projects, School of shipping, shipbuilding and hydro building in Belgrade.
- Lorène Weber, Policy Officer for Youth, Confrontations Europe.

10:45 – 12:00 Working Groups (4 groups/4 themes)

- Group 1: Serbia's integration to the European Union: opportunities, obstacles and political issues.
- Group 2: The particular issue of the Western Balkans' integration to the EU: stability of former conflict areas, social and territorial (re)integration of multicultural, multi-identity and border regions.
- Group 3: Serbia between the EU and Russia: which current and future relations? Which common values and differences?
- Group 4: Serbia, a non-EU country on the migration road between Greece and Hungary. How can Serbia address the migration issue?

12:00 – 12:30 Working groups presentation, following discussion

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30 – 14:00 “What has the Solidarity Tour meant to you?”
Video-interviews with the participants

14:00 – 15:00 Working groups: elaboration of joint recommendations

15:00 – 16:30 Presentation of the joint recommendations and discussion with experts.

- Paul-Henri Presset, Head of Press, Information and Communication, Delegation of the European Union to Serbia.
- Natasa Milojevic, MA Political Sciences, President of FOSDI. Cultural sociologist, political marketing consultant, gender policy expert, film producer. Former member of the Serbian Parliament, leader of SDP parliamentary group (2001 - 2004). Focal point person of the World Bank Institute (2002-2005), on the implementation of MDG (Millennium Development Goals). As a leader of the creative team of the DOS campaign in 2000, she was awarded the Creative Person of the Year by the recognition of the Association of Economic Journalists of Serbia.

Moderation: Lorène Weber, Policy Officer for Youth, Confrontations Europe.

16:30 – 17:00      Summary and conclusions between the participants and the panel.

17:00 – 18:00      Belgrade city tour.
(from the hotel to Nikola Tesla Museum)

18:00 – 19:00      Permanent exhibition, Nikola Tesla Museum.
Krunska Street 51, 11 000 Belgrade

20:30                Dinner
Skadarska 30, 11 000 Belgrade

Friday 18 October

10:30 – 12:30      Visit of Belgrade's historical centre: the past of wars.
By Nebojša Grujičić, Founder and editor of Moderna vremena.

Departure of the participants.

